

Diversity Transformation Conference, January 28-29, 2016
Continuing Critical Conversations Through Transformative Teaching and Learning at U Albany

Part I Keynote Speakers: Thursday, January 28th, 3:30 – 5:30 pm, Standish Room, 3rd Floor, Science Library

“Sexuality Matters, and is Not a Unitary Category“

Kathleen O’Mara, Ph.D. , SUNY Oneonta

&

"Marginal Communities, Knowledges and Sustainabilities“

Betty Wambui, Ph.D ., SUNY Oneonta

Part II Poster Session, Friday January 29, 10am – 12pm
Standish Room, 3rd Floor, Science Library FREE AND OPEN
U Albany and Discussion:

Anti-Oppression and Transformative Praxis:
Sharing Classroom Strategies, Curriculum Innovation

UA Faculty share examples of transformative pedagogy and discuss outcomes and implications. Come mingle, learn, join local dialogue facilitated by Oneonta guest facilitators. Offer your ideas and thoughts on curriculum innovations.

Please RSVP by January 26 for Lunch & Discussion (12-1:30pm)

Contact D. LaFond 442-3599 E:Mail dlafond@albany.edu

Sponsored by: The University Libraries, Women’s, Gender & Sexuality Studies, The Justice and Multiculturalism in the 21st Century Project (School of Criminal Justice), UUP Albany Chapter, The Office of Sustainability, The Institute for Teaching, Learning & Academic Leadership, The Office of Intercultural Student Engagement, The New York Writer’s Institute and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion. <https://transformativeconversations.wordpress.com/>